

2022-2023

SCHOOLTIME

WITH THE PSO

Join the Pittsburgh Symphony for curated music experiences that introduce students to the orchestra and nurture a love of music!

Grades PreK-1

Last Stop on Market Street

November 2, 2022

9:30 a.m. & 11:30 a.m., Heinz Hall

How can music help to tell a story? Join the Pittsburgh Symphony for a musical reading of Last Stop on Market Street by Matt de la Peña. Assistant Conductor Moon Doh leads the orchestra in musical selections that illustrate the characters, mood, and plot of this award-winning children's book about a young boy's eye-opening bus ride with his Nana.

Registration Deadline: October 19

Grades 2-4

Meet the Orchestra

May 3, 4, 8, 9, 10, 2023

10:30 a.m., Heinz Hall

How do instruments make sound? Explore how sound is created with Assistant Conductor Jacob Joyce and the Pittsburgh Symphony! Together we will learn how each instrument family creates its unique sound, how those sounds work together in an orchestra, and what role the conductor plays in bringing orchestral music to life.

Registration Deadline: April 24

Grades 4-6

Made in Pittsburgh

January 24, 25, 26, 2023

10:30 a.m., Heinz Hall

What is Pittsburgh's arts legacy? Celebrate the music, art, dance, and literature born right here in the 'Burgh! Special guests join the Pittsburgh Symphony and Assistant Conductor Jacob Joyce in this tribute to Pittsburgh artists past and present.

Registration Deadline: January 10

Grades 6-8

Exploring Jazz with Byron

March 22, 23, 24, 2023

10:30 a.m., Heinz Hall

What makes jazz unique? Dive into the rich, multi-faceted world of jazz with Principal Pops Conductor Byron Stripling and discover how it has influenced what we think of as American music today.
