

2010 Poggio
Capponi
Chianti Riserva

With a pale garnet color and a nose of vanilla and sherry, this dry, medium-bodied wine has sour cherries and minerality on the palate, and a chalky, long finish.

2011 Carpineto
Rosso di
Montepulciano

This red has a brilliant ruby red color with hints of garnet and a bouquet of violets and wood. Its taste is velvety with red fruits and a long finish.

2010 Pratale
Toscana Rossa

With a nose of violets and blackberry, this wine shows dark plum, blackberry and Bing cherries on the palate with cocoa and allspice notes. It is a medium-bodied classic Tuscan red.

2010 Bolgheri
"Sassello" Rosso

With red and black fruit, and a bit of licorice, this red also has some peppery and spicy notes. This wine has medium tannins, well integrated oak, and an exceptionally long finish.

Wednesday,
February 5, 2014

A Taste of Tuscany

With speakers Jacob Bacharach and Henry DeLuca

