

2011
Licia Albariño

With its apple, peach and melon bouquet, this spritzy white has flavors of white peach and green melon. It is crisp with a bit of brine on the clean finish.

2012
Lima Vinho Verde

With aromas of lemongrass and Mediterranean herbs, this wine has notes of white tea and crisp apple, pear and citrus flavors with a refreshing finish.

2008
Quinta da Garrida

This wine has ripe blackberry and plum flavors offset with hints of bitter mocha, spicy vanilla, black cherry and smoke. The flavors combine to produce a really smooth and complex wine which lingers through the finish.

2006
Castillo Labastida
Rioja Reserva

This wine has leather, dry cherry, spice and balsam wood on the nose. The palate is balanced with meaty plum and berry flavors cut by proper acids. It is long on the finish, with tobacco notes and lasting berry length.

Wednesday,
April 2, 2014

The Iberian Peninsula

With speakers Jacob Bacharach and Milko Miladinov

