

2013

Secoli Conegliano
Valdobbiandene
Prosecco

With a straw yellow color and hints of green apple and wildflowers on the nose, this sparkler has apricot and pear tastes with a buttery finish.

2013

Domaine Bernard
et Christophe Richel Apremont

This Apremont sparkles when swirled around the glass and it emanates ripe pear and stony, mineral aromatics. On the palate, it is crisp with wonderful minerality and touches of grapefruit.

2010

Rubrato Aglianico
Feudi di San Gregorio

With aromas of old leather, wild strawberries and notes of cherry and spice, this red has gritty tannins that cut through the fruity plum, licorice and tobacco flavors with a slightly stony finish and a big hit of red cherries.

2010

Rosenblum
Cellars Harris Kratka
Zinfandel

With a big cherry and blueberry nose, this wine has dried plums, crème brûlée and licorice on the palate. It moves into the finish with freshly ground black pepper.

Wednesday,
November 5, 2014

Thanksgiving Wines

With speaker Jacob Bacharach

The best wines are the ones we drink with friends.

