

2006 Domaine
Bott-Geyl Le Gentil
d'Alsace Métiss

This light yellow wine shows some exotic notes in the nose, with a touch of roses. It has a good mineral and acid backbone and a long, fruity finish.

2006 Domaine
Catherine Auther Pinot
Auxerrois

Made with 100 percent Pinot Auxerrois grapes, this flinty, smoky wine has a slightly nutty aroma and green apple crispness on the palate.

2009 Pierre Sparr Riesling

With lime green hues, this wine displays rose petal aromas and notes of grapefruit and green melon. It is medium-bodied with citrus, peach and honey on the palate.

Massenez
Cerises a l'Eau-de-Vie

This eau-de-vie (water of life) is clear, smells of dark cherries and possesses an intense taste. It is dry, smooth, and well rounded.

Wednesday,
November 2, 2011

Wines of Alsace

French wine food pairings

with speakers Jacob Bacharach of the Pittsburgh Cultural Trust and Wade Fox of Majestic

