Dear Teacher,

The Pittsburgh Cultural Trust is proud to be hosting Camp Broadway EXP, a one-day musical theater camp which enables theatre-loving kids ages 10-13 to develop confidence, character and presentation skills through ensemble performance on April 26, 2014. The instructors of Camp Broadway are New York Broadway professionals who provide helpful insight regarding dance and voice techniques, and guide campers' through staging a performance from beginning to end. Camp Broadway is designed to develop the campers' performance abilities, increase self-esteem, encourage creativity, enhance appreciation for the arts, and develop useful life skills.

The Pittsburgh Cultural Trust is happy to announce that we will be offering scholarships to two (2) students aged 10 – 13, who are nominated by their teachers as outstanding young artists to attend Camp Broadway EXP Pittsburgh on April 26, 2014. These students do not need to have any experience in musical theater to be nominated. These students should be chosen for their drive, compassion, interest in the performing arts, and high perceived benefit of attending the Camp Broadway EXP Pittsburgh program due to lack of financial or other means.

Student nominations will be accepted and awards given on a rolling basis until all scholarships have been filled. Each teacher can only nominate one (1) student, and only one (1) student may be selected from a school for 2013 Camp Broadway EXP Pittsburgh. If your nominated student is chosen, we will notify and send information and materials to the student receiving the scholarship. They must have all the appropriate forms signed by their parent(s)/guardian(s) and returned to us by Friday, April 4, 2014.

To nominate a student, please fill out the included form and send to:
