ABRAHAM
Mixed Repertory Program

MAY 9, 2026 | BYHAM THEATER

A.I.M by Kyle Abraham approaches its 20th anniversary, and in those two decades, has become one of the most celebrated repertory contemporary dance companies today. The New York Times has described the Company as one of “lush movement, infectious music and magnetic dancers...” and the Company has been featured in Vogue, Essence, and was on the April cover of the Harper’s Bazaar. A.I.M is a “postmodern gumbo” with an ardent voice within contemporary dance with an artistic process informed by robust conversations with people from diverse perspectives and collaborates with renowned choreographers including Bebe Miller, Doug Varone, Trisha Brown, Keerati Jinakunwiphat, Maleek Washington, Rena Butler, Paul Singh and Andrea Miller, ever expanding its repertory. A.I.M is based in New York City. Abraham is thrilled to return to his hometown, Pittsburgh, to share an evening filled with the A.I.M repertory.
