SPOTLIGHT on the 'BURGH

WHOSE TRICK IS IT ANYWAY?

Back by popular demand: the best of the 'Burgh! An improvisational magic show like none other! That's right, it's Spotlight on the Burgh's original feature, Whose Trick is it Anyway? Where everything is made up and the points don't matter. That's right, the points are like volume of Teller's microphone.

Watch as the very best prestidigitators in Pittsburgh try their hand at improv comedy. No script, no problem. Off the cuff card tricks, spur of the moment mentalism, spontaneous sleights and no shortage of magical mayhem will make this an evening like none other!

Dan Harmon is a 23-year-old front of house magician and assistant manager for Liberty Magic. His performances are a blend of close-up magic and his own unique brand of comedy, resulting in a truly one-of-a-kind show. He also is one half of The Harmon Brothers, a sideshow duo comprised of him and his younger brother. When not doing magic, he is the beatboxer for Pittsburgh acapella group Vocal Steel.

Eric Meredith is an award-winning magician with 50 years of clever, creative, and classic magic that guarantees laughs, a genuine good time, and lasting memories of your celebration, gathering, or special occasion. Eric is a master magician who dazzles at private parties and business events, who will leave everyone with a chuckle, and a sense of wonder. They'll smile until they laugh and laugh until they Wow! Your guests will love his magic, but they'll remember you.

Michael Misko was once described as “the Zach Galifianakis of magic,” Michael’s greatest asset is the ability to combine dry-roasted comedy and world-class sleight-of-hand technique to form an evening of pee-in-your-pants entertainment.

In 2015, Michael was hand-picked to create the role of the “Magic Maker” in the World Premiere of Stephen Schwartz’s Magic to Do, and can be heard on the Original Cast Album, available on iTunes, Amazon, or Spotify.

Currently, Michael is a highly sought-after consultant for Fortune 500 Companies, as he helps connect them with their employees and clients in an astonishing and memorable way. Additionally, Michael performs on cruise ships, at universities, comedy clubs, and private functions all across the world.

He lives in Pittsburgh, PA with his beautiful wife, Sarah, their perfect daughters, Rosalind, Sloane, Murphy, and scruffy Double Doodle, Aurora.

WELCOME TO

LIBERTY MAGIC

French fries on salads, parking chairs, racing perogies, Steeler Sundays and world class close up magic. These are things that make the Steel City like no other. Maybe you ask them to hold the slaw on your Primanti's sandwich or you've given up on the Pirates but one thing we can all agree on- Pittsburgh loves Pittsburgh and tonight Liberty Magic is honored to be celebrating the best sleights, deceptions and misdirections of the 'Burgh.

This tradition of highlighting the best of the best of the 'Burgh has become one of Liberty Magic's favorites and this time we're taking a step further... We're expanding upon one of the most loved segments ever created during a Spotlight show and paying homage to everyone's favorite sketch comedy show, Whose Line is it Anyway?

The only improve comedy magic show in existence is moments away, so as you enjoy tonight's performance, please keep in mind that the true magic happens somewhere in the intangible connection between performer and audience. The most magical experience we can provide is one that truly requires your thoughts, your choice, and your actions to create. We hope you will leave Liberty Magic knowing that there wouldn't have been any magic at all without you.

Thank you for joining us, supporting us, and believing in us.

Director of Operations & Programmer

In February 2019, the Pittsburgh Cultural Trust launched a new venue dedicated to elevating the art of magic. Located at 811 Liberty, on the same block where Harry Houdini mesmerized Pittsburgh crowds in 1916, Liberty Magic is an intimate, speakeasy storefront emphasizing the art of sleight of hand and prestidigitation. With 66 seats in 4 rows, the magicians and performers who appear at Liberty Magic offer you a one-of-a-kind experience that is easy to access and hard to forget.
