O'REILLY THEATER

AN ENEMY OF THE PEOPLE

A "CRACKLING AND PERSUASIVE" POWER PLAY

Fresh from its Tony Award®-winning and headline-making Broadway run, Amy Herzog's enthralling adaptation of Ibsen's 1883 classic delivers a searing tale of truth versus corruption. When idealist Dr. Thomas Stockman uncovers life-threatening contamination at his town's new spa, his fight to expose this ignites bitter battles between foes, friends, and family that shake the fragile community to its core. With echoes of our modern political and cultural landscape, this gripping environmentalist parable lays bare the price of integrity in a society where profit often outweighs justice. Hailed as "Crackling and persuasive" by The New York Times.
